The Finals

Cadets

Jamie Chick took a lights to flag victory but a pack of four closely followed. These consisted of Jack Simpson, James Paterson, Steven Allan and Connor Wilson. Paterson moved past Simpson on the third lap from home to take second leaving Simpson third. Similarly Wilson got the better of Allan to finish fourth and fifth respectfully. James Wood came home sixth.

Juniors

The Juniors consisted of a multi class – Mini Max, Junior Max and Junior TKM. The overall Race winner was Grant Cheesewright followed home by Bibi Aldrick. and Adrian Brodie in Junior Max. Frazer Huntley won the Mini Max class from Darren Brodie and Brendan Walker

The Junior TKM produced the closest finish with Ross Greig and Colin Mutch bumper to bumper as they crossed the line in favour of the former. Luke Geddes was third.

Senior Max

From the grid of 20, Cliff Harper put it on pole position for the final. From the green lights, Harper took the lead not to be headed pulling out a large gap to take the 10 lap victory. At the start Ronnie Donald, Andrew Wisely, Richard Johnstone, David Barrack and Neil Ferguson followed Harper. Donald spun out on lap two. Ferguson moved up to third on lap 3 but only to displace on the following lap by Barrack, followed by Johnstone, Michael Christie and Mike Rattray. Wisely went on to take second and Barrack third. Fourth went to Stuart Wyness, who had started seventeenth and worked his way through the pack. Johnstone came home fifth with Rattray sixth.

Prokarts

Michael Richie qualified on pole position after three heats and held the lead at the lights. Andrew Smith was spun out at MTM bend allowing Mark Wyness through followed by Fraser Skene, 'Scottie', Steven Greig and Andy Putullo. Richie led all the way to take the chequered flag. Skene caught Wyness and passed him on Boyndie Straight for second, which he held. Wyness took third. Richard Greig came through to fourth with Smith recovering to take fifth. Lee Wilson finished sixth.

Gearbox

Graham McWilliam took the win as his competitors fell by the wayside with mechanical problems

Trophies were presented in the clubhouse.

Next race meeting at Boyndie will take place on Sunday 14th September
